LEGAL NOTICE

VIRGINIA: In the Circuit Court of Appomattox County the 29 day of March, 1976.
RE: WILLIAM W. BURKE,
Deceased
SHOW CAUSE ORDER

It appearing to the Court that a report of the accounts of The Fidelity National Bank, Lynchburg, Virginia, Executor of the Estate of William W. Burke, deceased, and of the debts and demands against his estate has been filed in the Clerk's Office of this Court and that more than six months have elapsed since the qualification of said Executor, upon motion of the said personal representative, IT IS ORDERED that the creditors of, and all others interested in, the Estate do show cause, if any they can, at 9 o'clock, A.M., on the 9th day of April, 1976, before this Court at its courtroom, against the payment and delivery of the Estate of William W. Burke, deceased, to the legatees, without requiring refunding bonds.

It is further ORDERED that a copy of this order be published once a week for two successive weeks in The Times-Virginian, a newspaper published in the County of Appomattox and having general circulation in said County.

NOTICE

VIRGINIA: In the Circuit Court of Appomattox County
Naomi Johnson Dingee, Complainant
v.
The Unknown Heirs of Leonora Johnson GiGante, Defendants
To: Unknown parties, being heirs at law of Lenora Johnson GiGante, Deceased.

The object of this suit is to determine whether the writing dated February 27, 1950, is or is not the true last will and testament of Lenora Johnson GiGante, who died on July 2, 1956, in New York, New York, and if so, to admit said writing to probate as last will and testament of Lenora Johnson GiGante.

An affidavit having been made and filed that there may be parties interested for or against the establishment of said last will and testament and probate thereof whose names and addresses are unknown to the affiant, it is ORDERED that they appear before the Circuit Court of Appomattox County on May 14, 1976, at 9:00 a.m. to do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit.

Eyelets Win Softball Tournament

The sixth grade rooms at the Appomattox Elementary School had a softball tournament recently that was a real success with all teams having lots of fun participating, and showing good sportsmanship all the way. The team from Mrs. Eye's room, The Eyelets, were the champions of the tournament but the real winners were all the participants. The originators of the idea for the tournament were Mark Kelso and Scott Ivery. Mr. Sweet and Mr. Goldman were very helpful in their assistance.

Virginia State Income Tax Discrimination

If you are unfamiliar with the gross inequities in the present law relating to taxation of retirees and surviving spouses, just look at Schedule V.A-R of your 1975 state income tax forms - - - six categories with differing tax treatment. Not shown, because under the law they are tax exempt from paying any state income tax on retired pay, are state and local government retirees and their surviving spouses. This NO TAX group includes persons receiving yearly retired pay from less than a thousand dollars to more than $27,000.

There is valid justification for some tax breaks for older retirees and their surviving spouses because of increased expenses associated with advancing age. To totally exempt one category and not another is callous indifference in the making of law. For example, a widow of a state retiree pays no state income tax while her neighbor, with similar pension and needs, a widow of a retiree from industry, may be required to pay full state tax or have her tax reduced very little. Similar injustices are applicable among other retiree categories. The General Assembly must rectify this discrimination among senior citizens. Unless corrective action is taken, most persons now working will eventually end up in this unjust, discriminatory muddle.

Last year attempts were made to have the General Assembly correct the law, but the excuse was that it was an inappropriate issue because the Assembly doesn't normally handle budget matters in odd years. Also, the Finance Committees indicated that sufficient data was not available for basing sound judgments in the area of retiree tax exemptions. Both the Senate and House Finance Committees designated groups to study and report on this subject. But no thorough study was made during the course of the year. No public hearings were held and no reports rendered to the full Committees. Again, older citizens are the brunt of inaction, and the lack of interest on the part of some elected officials.

While the present law enacted by the General Assembly and approved by Gov. Godwin in 1974 rightfully included industry retirees and surviving spouses, it places them at the bottom of the exemption ladder. It establishes an income ceiling and exemptions on the basis of source of retired pay rather than on such things as need, retired pay, reward or economic status. As a result, taxes for many retired persons increased by 100% to 150%.

Fortunately, some legislators recognize the terrible inequity in this situation, and propose to change it by providing equal treatment for all classifications of retirees and their surviving spouses.

Senate Bill 366, sponsored by Senator Omer Hirst (D), Annadale, will, if enacted, end discrimination in this tax area. His bill will provide uniform treatment for all retirees and their surviving spouses. It authorizes an exemption of $2,500 for those over age 60, and a $17,500 Adjusted Gross Income ceiling above which the exemption would be reduced dollar for dollar. The bill contains a grandfather clause which would protect the tax status of the existing state, county and city retirees, and those state and local employees who retired before January 1, 1981. Most importantly, a firm base is established for equal treatment of all retirees in the future.

Under the House side, Delegate Warren Stambaugh has introduced HB 747 which continues indefinitely the special privilege of NO TAX for state and local government retirees. However, the bill contains dollar and age limits similar to the Senate Bill. It is desirable that the House Bill be amended to include uniform treatment provisions as contained in the Senate Bill, thus eliminating discrimination in the taxation of older citizens.

The National Association For Uniformed Services, 956 North Monroe Street, Arlington, VA 22201, in cooperation with other organizations composing the Virginia Legislative Council of Military Services and Veterans Organizations, has vigorously supported Equal Not Special income tax treatment for all retirees. It is a matter that affects the entire spectrum of taxpayers. Therefore, all who are concerned, whether from industry, military, civil service or self employed, should contact immediately their State Senator and Delegates and urge them to give full and active support to SB 366 and insist that HB 747 be modified to provide uniform treatment of all retirees. They are your representatives and you should hold them accountable.

Don't delay! The bills are now being considered by the Committees of the Virginia Assembly.

Of Interest To Veterans

Editor's Note: following are representative questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information is available at any VA office.

Q- I am a married veteran attending college under the GI Bill and am having financial difficulty. Are there any other VA programs that might assist me?

A- There are two possible sources of assistance. A veteran attending on a full-time basis may apply to participate in VA work-study program. There also is the VA student loan program. Full information is available through the VA regional office or the Vet Rep on campus.

Q- Are all veterans eligible for a nonservice-connected disability pension?

A- No. Only veterans with 90 days or more honorable wartime service who are permanently and totally disabled from reasons not traceable to service are eligible.

Q - Does VA make allowances for refresher training in a program for which the veteran was previously qualified through former schooling or experience?

A - Yes. A new program of refresher training for a maximum of six months allows updating former experience or education gained prior to service.

Q - How and to whom may a Presidential Memorial Certificate be issued?

A - Normally a certificate is issued automatically to the veteran's next of kin. Your nearest VA regional office can assist with application procedures.

Q - I wish to review my records maintained by the VA to determine validity of certain documents. Who should I contact?

A - The Privacy Act of 1974 grants individuals the right to access and to seek correction or amendment of records pertaining to the veteran or beneficiary. Submit a written request to the VA regional office that maintains your records.
